

Welcome to the NGO/Scientist Workshop

15-16 MAY 2007

Louisiana Coastal Protection and Restoration (LACPR) Project

U.S. Army Engineer Research and Development Center
Vicksburg, MS

One Team: Relevant, Ready, Responsive, Reliable

Workshop Logistics

- Refreshments located in rear of workshop facility
- Rest rooms are located to right outside workshop meeting room
- Lunch
  - Make-your-own sandwich from table spread at workshop
  - $8 per person
  - Pay Sally Yost now to get on list
  - Offsite locations are optional
- Dinner
  - Dinner plates served at Wilsonwood Lodge
  - Driving directions available in back of room
  - $18 per person
  - Pay Sally Yost now to get on list
  - Other locations are optional

Opening Remarks

- Objectives
  - Communicate path forward
  - Address NGO/Scientist interests/concerns as summarized
  - Solicit input to strengthen technical, planning, and decision making work
- Limitations
  - Focus is on work forward on LACPR
  - Not able to discuss past projects
- Time Management
  - Emphasis on discussing full set of briefs
  - Allow presenters to finish, then hold Q&A
  - Discussions straying into some detail will be noted for scheduling the next day or another day/time
  - Use lunch and dinner times for carrying on continued dialogue

Wednesday, May 16th: Workshop Day 2

- 8:30AM – 8:55AM: Brainstorming
- 9:00AM – 9:15AM: Overview
- 9:15AM – 10:30AM: Break-Out
- 10:30AM: Target Adjournment

Wednesday, May 16th: Workshop Day 2

- Hydraulics
- Environmental Restoration
- Integration
- RIDF Details
- Stakeholder Identification/Engagement
- Scope
- Prioritized Implementation